

A. DULL WINS ALCOHOLISM EMBLEM CONTEST

EMBLEM WINNER — Fred Pete, left, presents an award to Art Dull, Jr. winner of the emblem contest for the Alaska Native Commission on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse (ANCADA).

Photo by LARRY FULTON

Bethel Student Cops Award as One of 71

Art Dull, Jr., a Junior at Bethel Regional High School, has been selected as the first place winner in the contest to select an emblem for the Alaska Native Commission on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse.

Seventy-one entries, received from students throughout the State, were judged by the Executive Committee of ANCADA at a meeting June 12.

Receiving first honorable mention was Jerry Scott, Jr. of Service Hanshaw in Anchorage and second honorable mention went to John J. Oscar of Tununak.

Mr. Dull's entry depicts the slogan of ANCADA and shows three problem areas of liquor, marijuana, and hard drugs.

He was presented with the $100 check for first place by

Fred Pete who is the ANCADA representative from the Bethel region.

Mr. Pete is the Director of the Ekayuvik Sleep-Out Center which, translated from Yupik, means a place of help.

When asked about his entry, Mr. Dull stated that he was encouraged by his teachers and felt it "might be worth a try."

He is pleased about receiving the $100 prize and plans to put it in the bank.