
Alcoholism Prog. Moved To St. Paul Is.

The alcoholism program in Unalaska, formerly directed by Emil Berikoff, has recently been transferred to the Island of St. Paul.

Mr. Berikoff, who resigned effective April 30, will still be actively involved in the field of alcoholism even though not directly employed by RurAl CAP.

The Village Council of St. Paul has selected Mr. Constantine Emanoff, a 38-year-old Native of St. Paul, to direct the program there. Mr. Emanoff spent a week in Anchorage receiving orientation and will receive on-site training in the near future.
