Fast becoming a holiday tradition

No matter how carefully you plan, there is always a last minute package that MUST be delivered before a busy holiday. That's when you need SpeedMark.

SpeedMark is MarkAir's express package service that whisks your gift to its Alaskan destination quickly and safely.

You can SpeedMark any package up to 70 pounds with dimensions of 90 inches or less (length plus width plus height).

It's simple. Just take your package to a MarkAir service counter 20 minutes before flight time.* MarkAir guarantees it will be on the next flight . . . or your money back. And, your package will be ready for pickup at the other end 20 minutes after arrival.

So, if you have a last minute package to send during this busy time of the year, start a new holiday tradition . . . use SpeedMark.
