The Tundra Times was founded in 1962 by Howard Rock, author, artist and humanist, and a Native of Point Hope, Alaska. We have strived, since Howard's death in 1976, to continue the job he started — keeping rural Alaskans informed about news of concern to them, and voicing their concerns to urban and rural readers. The Tundra Times was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in 1972.
Our paper is read in Anchorage, Juneau, Washington, D.C., and in every village from the Arctic to the panhandle.
