

Alyeska funds scholarship program for Alaska Natives at UAF

Alyeska Pipeline Service Co. is funding a new scholarship program for Alaska Native students at the University of Alaska Fairbanks.

The Troth Yeddha Scholarship Program derives its name from an Athabaskan Indian word meaning "from every village they come."

UAF's Rural Student Services will award five Alyeska scholarships of $1,000 each for the fall 1997 semester for qualified Alaska Native students.

Recipients must be Alaska Native and currently enrolled full-time students in good academic standing and who are interested in careers with Alyeska.

Troth Yeddha scholarship packets are available at Rural Student Services. Applications are due April 15.

For information contact Birdie Hendrickson, Rural Student Services, at (907) 474-7871.