

VA Office Hums

The Veterans Administration Regional Office in Juneau is being besieged with inquiries resulting from recent notices of adjustment of veterans educational entitlement, M.W. McDonough, Manager, stated.

The adjustment notices were in computer card form and purported to inform veterans of their period of remaining educational benefits entitlement as adjusted by a recent change in law.

The Regional Office has learned the information shown on the notice is incorrect and notices will be issued as soon as possible, McDonough said.