JUNEAU—A $300 Rural Development Agency grant has been approved for the village of Elim, Acting Gov. Keith H. Miller said.

Elim is on Norton Bay, 100 miles east of Nome.

Funds from the grant will pay the wages of village residents staking fifty miles of trail between Elim and Bald Head and Elim and McKinley Creek.

Supervising the project for the village will be Ernest Nylin, village council president; Hans Jamewouk, council vice-president and Wallace Paul, council treasurer.
