

CINA seeks instructors

Cook Inlet Native Association Community Education Department is seeking Native adults to instruct cultural classes for an elementary afterschool program. In addition, Native high school students are wanted to assist in recreation activities.

Both positions are with pay and are expected to begin January 21st and continue through the remainder of the school year. For more information, contact Jeff Charpentier, Elementary Program Coordinator for CINA at 265-1275.