MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE POLICE OFFICER STANDARDS CORRECTION

You may have recently attempted to apply for Police Officer with the Municipality of Anchorage during it's current recruiting period (ending July 6th), but did not because you could not meet the drug-use related standards as listed on the Alaska Police Standards Council (APSC) Questionnaire. Please know that those standards have now been reduced somewhat, primarily to eliminate disqualification due to drug use before age 21, and to relax the marijuana use standard. If you did not apply because you did not qualify under the original standards, you are encouraged to review the new standards and submit an application if you can now pass. For specific details, please visit the Employment Office at 632 W. 8th Avenue, 9 AM to 4 PM, or call 343-4452 to have a new questionnaire mailed to you.

BLM Public Notice to Village Residents

The village corporation shown below has now officially filed with the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) a map of the village boundaries. This map only shows all of the parcels of land the village corporation has identified as qualifying for transfer of ownership, such as houses, businesses, etc., under Section 14(c) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA), 43 USC 1613(c). This section of the Act requires the village corporation to identify and convey to any Native or non-Native occupant, title to the surface estate in the tract occupied in 1971 as a primary place of residence, primary place of business, subsistence campsite, headquarters for reindeer husbandry, or for certain other specified purposes.

If you have an interest in such land, you should contact the village corporation to review the map of boundaries to be sure the map includes your claim.

VILLAGE: CORPORATION SHUNGNAG: NANA Regional Corp., Inc.

The official filing date of the map of boundaries is:

June 18, 1990

Federal regulations state that any conflicts among potential transferees or between the village corporation and such transferees are to be resolved before the map is submitted to BLM 43 CFR 2650.5-4 (c) (1).

The Bureau of Land Management does not have any authority to adjudicate transfer decisions. Any disputes over 14(c) transfers must be resolved between the village corporation and the individual.

If you disagree with the village corporation's boundary decisions, you should contact the corporation. If the disagreement is not resolved, you must start a court action within one year of the date shown above. If you have a dispute and do not start a court action within one year, you will forfeit your claim.
