

RUGGED BEAUTY AROUND VILLAGE OF ATKA

FAN OUT FALLS — The land of the Aleuts on the farflung Aleutian Chain offers some of the world's most spectacular scenery. A beautiful water fall that tumbles down in a fan out.

STROLLING THE BEACH — Atka village man strolls around in his familiar surroundings of his village.

COVE AT THE CAMP — Larry Dirks' ancestors camped at this picturesque location. Larry himself claimed 40 acres at this camp even though he had difficulty doing it. The Dirks have claimed 100 acres.

LARRY DIRKS — Larry is standing by his small truck at the village of Atka far out on the Aleutian Chain. He and his wife have seven children.
