

Governor's Commission on Administration of Justice meets

The Governor's Commission on the Administration of Justice met in Fairbanks on June 23-24, 1976, to review Action grant applications for funding and to discuss various issues relating to criminal justice system improvement in Alaska.

Grants totalling $173,025 were approved for funding by the Commission for the implementation of the following projects:

—Petersburg Youth Program (Petersburg Council on Alcoholism): $24,125;

—Youth Services Center (Bisdark Corporation-Cordova): $25,074;

Criminal Justice Liaison for Diversion (Upper Tanana Regional Council on Alcoholism): $14,950;

—Anchorage Jails Alcoholism Program (Division of Corrections—): $25,200;

Southeast Regional Correctional Institute Substance Abuse Project (Alcoholism Central Agency-Juneau): $14,300;

—Continuing Judicial Education (Alaska Court System): $15,120.;

—Upgrading Village Ordinances (North Slope Borough): $9,955;

Conservation Camp for Youth Offenders (Division of Corrections): $30,881;

—Drug Abuse Training (Alaska Police Standards Council: $5,000;

—APD Planning and Research (Anchorage Police Department): $8,430.

The Commission discussed the development of regulations relating to security, privacy, and intelligence formation. A plan for developing these regulations will be presented to the Commission at its next meeting by its staff, the Criminal Justice Planning Agency.

Other areas of discussion at the meeting included the completion of the Bush Justice Implementation Committee project, exemplary criminal justice projects, and 1977 Alaska Criminal Justice Planning development and implementation.