Alaska Commercial Co.

Bought and controlled by Anchorage based Community Enterprise Development Corporation of Alaska

The Alaska Commercial Company was purchased by you, the people of rural Alaska. We are here to provide you with the highest quality products at the lowest prices.

Through our understanding of local community problems we can provide a broader line of goods and services than ever before. In becoming your retail store we must meet your needs.

You are the back bone of the Alaska Commercial Company, and we know it. Come in and look your store over.
