

Bedford photography exhibit opens Feb. 10 in Fairbanks

FAIRBANKS — The University of Alaska Fairbanks is planning a show opening Feb. 10 of photographs created by Jimmy Bedford, as well as work by his students.

The exhibit will run through February at the UAF Wood Center on the campus.

Bedford taught journalism classes at the UAF Journalism and Broadcasting Department for 16 years. He is a professor emeritus today.

Former students of Bedford's who would like to have their work included in the show may contact the UAF Journalism and Broadcasting Department at 474-7761 in Fairbanks.
