

North Slope Education Center holds contest for new logo

The North Slope Higher Education Center is holding a contest for a logo which best reflects the presence and potential of locally controlled post-secondary education in the North Slope Borough.

The winning entry will be incorporated into all letterheads, catalogues and handbooks, and it will become the official symbol of the center.

The contest is open to all residents of the North Slope, regardless of age.

The top three artists will be awarded prizes, which consist of scholarships to the center. They include, $600, first prize; $360, second prize; and $160, third prize.

In the event that the winning artists are minors, the scholarships can be transferred to other potential students.

Designs should be no larger than 8 by 10 inches and contain a maximum of three colors. Entrants are asked to attach a cover sheet to the entry that contains the artist's name, address, telephone number and age.

The deadline is Nov. 15.

Entries can be sent to the North Slope Higher Education Center, Logo Contest, Box 69, Barrow 99723.
