

31 Unlisted Villages Ask for Certification with BIA

Thirty-one villages not listed in the Settlement Act have filed applications for certification with the Bureau of Indian Affairs prior to the September 1 deadline, according to spokesmen for the bureau. Under Interior Department regulations, September 1 was the deadline for unlisted villages to apply for certification.

The villages which applied are: Aiaktolik, Anton-Larsen Bay, Ayakulik, Bells Flats Village, Litnik, Little Afognak, Fort William, Uganik, and Woody Island in the Koniag region; Alexander Creek, Chickaloon, Kasilof, Knik, and Point Possession in the Cook Inlet region; Chenega and Eyak in the Chugach region; Chuloonawick (Chuloonavik) and Umkumiute (Umunute) in the Calista region; Council, Haycock, King Island, and Solomon in the Bering Straits region; Evansville (Bettles Field), Healy Lake, and Wiseman in the Doyon region; Kenny Lake, Nabesna, and Twin Lake in the Ahtna region; Haines and Tenakee in the Sealaska region; Attu in the Aleut region.