

Salute

Betty Miller has rejoined BP Exploration (Alaska) Inc. and BP Pipelines (Alaska) Inc. as community affairs representative. She is responsible for the companies' community relations activities in Prince William Sound, the Kenai Peninsula and Kodiak.

A graduate of Kenai Central High School, she brings 20 years of experience with BP to the new position. She joined BP as a secretary in the Legal Department in Anchorage in 1974 and was supervisor of communications in the Telecommunications Department when she resigned in 1990.

Captain Thomas T. Stearns, 48, has been appointed as the new deputy director of the Alaska State Troopers. The announcement was made Jan. 18 in Anchorage by the organization's director, Colonel Glenn G. Godfrey. The appointment and promotion to the rank of major were effective Jan. 23.

Alice Crow, of Bethel, has been named Director of Native Student Services at the University of Alaska Anchorage, announced UAA Chancellor Edward Lee Gorsuch and Vice Chancellor for Student Services Larry Kingry.

The search committee recognized Crow for her sensitivity and knowledge of Native issues important to students and staff.

The following Washington State University students graduated in December and are listed according to their hometown:

Auke Bay: Mark B. Dewey, B.S. Natural Resource Management

Kaktovik: Eric J. Sims, B.A. Sociology

April Minton, an ASRC shareholder and present student at South Puget Sound Community College in Olympia, Wash., has earned top grades and has made the college's Dean's List with her 3.94 GPA.

Minton returned to her college education in the fall of 1994 with financial help from ASRC's Arctic Education Foundation.

Besides being a wife and the mother of an active 4-year-old daughter, Minton is a dedicated student in the dental assisting program at SPSCC.

Minton will graduate in August 1995. She and her family send a special thanks to Flossie Anderson and all the individuals who are involved with the AEF.

Jama Rukovichnikoff of St. Paul Island received her Community Health Practitioner certification Feb. 28, 1995. Jama is the first community health aide in the region to reach the practitioner level of certification. The Aleutian/Pribilof Islands Association is very proud of Jama's accomplishment.