

CONCENTRATION—Five Eskimo boys and a Swedish boy, are in deep concentration, a proper attitude due the game of chess. The boys are participating in the chess game tournament recently put on in their school at Nome, Alaska and the winner was Scott Bohler shown at left making a chess move. Others, seated, are: Sammy Tucker, Stephen Fondell, a Swedish youngster, and Joseph Amarok, who won second place. Standing

are: Stanley Evan, left, and George Amarok. Third place winner was Sammy Tucker; fourth, George Amarok; fifth, Stephen Fondell; sixth, Stanley Evan; seventh, Karen Dickson; eighth, Elton Picnalook; ninth, Gail Galleher; tenth, Brenda Balliet; eleventh, Lola Okitkun; twelfth, Linda Tippeconnic.

—Photo courtesy of THE NOME NUGGET