

Chamber elects members

Harold Moles of Fairbanks was elected earlier this month to the at-large seat for the Alaska State Chamber of Commerce, according to Al Fleetwood, chamber chairman.

Moles currently serves as chamber vice chairman.

Don Thornlow of Ketchikan, current Finance Committee chairman, was elected for the Southeast area, while Margy Johnson of Cordova was elected for the Kenai, Cordova and Valdez area.

Others elected included Lin Sloane, Doug Stark and Tom Jenson for Anchorage; Brigitta Lively for Wasilla, Big Lake, Tok, Glennallen, Delta Junction and Healy; and Rick Wagner, Walt Kozie and Al Burch for Kodiak.