

Don't forget to...

VOTE

ON NOVEMBER 4th

Alaskan wins NCAI title

Valerie Davidson, Miss WEIO 1986, was named Miss NCAI last month in Phoenix, Ariz., at the 43rd Annual Convention of the National Congress of American Indians.

She was also named Miss Congeniality. The first runnerup in the national competition was Lisa Williams of Sitka, who was named most talented. The two Alaskans competed among 13 young women nationally.

NCAI is the oldest national organization serving American Indians and Alaska Natives. Their conventions, the largest annual gatherings of Indian and Native leadership, offer a forum for the development of national policy and strategy. This year's theme was "Beyond Survival: The Next Step is Ours."

Valerie Davidson was named Miss NCAI at the 43rd Annual Convention of the National Congress of American Indians.