

A select group of people has front row seats to Alaska's Olympic bid in Switzerland.

And you're included.

Join your fellow Alaskans in Lausanne, Switzerland as Alascom brings you live statewide coverage of Anchorage's Olympic bid.

You can be a part of Olympic history. Simply by turning on your television.

Lausanne, Switzerland, over half a world away, will be the site of a once-in-a-lifetime event for Alaska...our first Olympic bid, with all the accompanying drama and tension. And you'll be right there with the Alaskan delegation in the front row, thanks to the miracle of state-of-the-art telecommunications from Alascom.

Alascom is proud to present statewide the three-part series "Olympic Decision — 1992" on October 14, 15 and 17. You'll be there LIVE in Switzerland for our delegation's reaction to Anchorage's presentation. And you'll be there LIVE in Lausanne when the dramatic decision is announced...the host for the 1992 Winter Olympics. Will Anchorage be the one? Alascom will take you there LIVE to find out.

So pull up your front row seat and turn on your television. History is about to happen. And Alascom is the one you call on to take you there.

Anchorage Organizing Committee
for the 1992 Olympics

Olympic Decision — 1992
Check your local listings for details.

The Presentation — Tuesday, October 14, 9:00 p.m. ADT
This one hour program will give you the history of Anchorage's bid to host the 1992 Winter Olympics and a look at the presentation to be given to the International Olympic Committee.

The Reaction — Live From Switzerland! — Wednesday, October 15, 9:00 a.m. ADT

After the presentation, AOC members will comment on their reaction to Anchorage's presentation. John Hernandez of KTUU will compare Anchorage's efforts to those of other bidding cities.

The Decision — Live From Switzerland! — Friday, October 17, 4:30 a.m. ADT

Will Anchorage do it again? Be there live in Switzerland and find out.

