

John E. Larsen Jr.

Larsen named CEO for Aleuts

John E. Larsen Jr. has been named president and chief executive officer of The Aleut Corp., as a result of a meeting held last month in Anchorage.

Agafon Kurkoff Jr., who held the position of president over the past 10 years will remain active with The Aleut Corp. and will concentrate on legislative and Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act inter-regional affairs.

Other officers include: Alice Petrivelli, chairman; Krukoff, vice chairman; Larsen, president; Father Paul Mercurief, vice president; and Dimitri Philemonof, secretary/treasurer.