

HOW WOULD YOU SPEND $1.3 MILLION

CITY RESIDENTS: You are invited to tell your city council your ideas for community development projects for Fairbanks.

The council must decide how to spend the 1977 $1.3 million Community Development Block Grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

PROJECTS COULD INCLUDE: improvement of community facilities, installation of street lights, preservation of historic buildings, purchase of open space, improvements in blighted areas, street improvements and water and sewer projects.

PROJECTS FUNDED IN THE PAST INCLUDE:

city-wide street lights, Barnette Street improvements, installation of street lane markers, renovation of the Wickersham House and the Riverboat Nenana, the South Fairbanks sewer, a community housing study, paving on South Cushman, Chena River bike path and a power plant waste heat study and project.
