

IS SUBSISTENCE HUNTING & FISHING ON FEDERAL PUBLIC LANDS IMPORTANT TO YOU?

Then We Need Your Help

PUBLIC MEETINGS

Public Meetings are being held in about 60 communities throughout Alaska from late October until early December to gather comments on how the Federal Government should manage subsistence activities.

KEY ISSUES FOR COMMENT

- The definition of "customary and traditional" use of fish and wildlife
- The adequacy of the existing State system of fish and game advisory committees/regional councils
- Proposed rural/non-rural community determinations
- The Temporary Subsistence Management regulations so that final regulations can be written
- Environmental, social, economic, and cultural impacts of subsistence activities
- Other ideas and concerns on subsistence

IF YOU CANNOT ATTEND A MEETING, WRITTEN COMMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED UNTIL . . .

December 10, 1990, for rural determinations
December 31, 1990, for all other issues

Send written comments to:

Chairman, Federal Subsistence Board
c/o U.S. Fish and Wildlife
ATTN: Richard S. Pospahala
