

Patsy Nusunginya to Marry Mike Aamodt

John Nusunginya this week announced from Barrow that his daughter, Patsy Nusunginya, 19, will be married to Michael Aamodt, 24, of Anchorage, on September 2.

Patsy, at the present time, is in Mexico representing Alaska Upward Bound Program in its experiment in the International Living.

Mike is attending the University of Alaska with a major in anthropology and he will graduate next January, after which he will begin work on his masters degree.

Patsy will enter the University of Alaska as a freshman this fall and she will major in education.

The couple will live in College. Mike expects to work driving a school bus before and after school hours.

The couple will be married at the College Presbyterian Church at 8:00 p.m. The Presbyterian minister who will marry them graduated from school with Mike's father's sister in Hibbing, Minn.

Patsy's father, John, is a widower. Mike's parents are Jacqueline and Hubert Norman Aamodt of Anchorage.

It matters not how long you live, but how well.
