

Fun-filled Movies for Children at Alaskaland

The last month of summer vacation will be fun-filled, thrilling and adventuresome for kids who go to the movies on Tuesday mornings at the Civic Center Theater.

The Alaska Association for the Arts has selected fine quality films especially created to entertain children six to sixteen.

August tickets, good for all four remaining shows, will be on sale at the theater box office and from Art Association board members for $2.00.

Scheduled for August 6th is the amazingly authentic NANOOK OF THE NORTH. An unusual Japanese cartoon will be featured on August 13th, THE LITTLEST WARRIOR.

Next John Ford's production

MY DARLING CLEMENTINE will be seen August 20th. THE SNOW QUEEN will bring the Children's Film Festival to a close on August 27th. Showtime is 10:00 AM every Tuesday.
