

Val Nick Angasan

Scholarship recipient

Val Nick Angasan, a resident of South Naknek in Bristol Bay, was a recipient of the Alaskan of the Year Scholarship.

A sophomore business major at the University of Alaska, Anchorage, Angasan received a $1,000 scholarship. Proceeds for the scholarship are derived from the annual Alaskan of the Year Awards Banquet held each spring in Anchorage. Donations from various individuals and businesses throughout the state also contribute to the fund.

Angasan attended Bristol Bay High School and is currently employed with the Alaska Federation of Natives Johnson-O'Malley program which he appropriates money for special education. His future plans include performing some type of business or accounting function in rural Alaska.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Trefon Angasan of South Naknek, Angasan is currently active on the UAA Special Services Advisory Board.

The Alaskan of the Year Scholarship is awarded to outstanding Alaska residents to assist them in their educational goals with the intention that this investment shall be returned by the recipients following their careers in Alaska.

VAL ANGASAN-UAA