

Rep. Pollock Decides Not to Run for Senate

U. S. Rep. Howard W. Pollock last Wednesday in Juneau decided that he is not going to run for U. S. Senate seat.

Pollock made the disclosure at the Juneau Republican Club's Lincoln Day dinner that "after considerable soul searching" he decided he would not seek the seat but that he will seek re-election.

"I don't think Pollock will run for Senate," a politician said in Anchorage last week. "I think he will be scared off by that big money that is expected to be floating around."
