

Wickersham's Bibliography of Alaskan Literature on Sale

Copies of Judge James A. Wickersham's "A Bibliography of Alaskan Literature, 1724-1924" are again on sale at the University of Alaska.

Published in 1927 by the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines through a grant from the 1927 Territorial Legislature, the book has been out of print and unavailable for several years.

Many experts consider it the authoritative Alaskan bibliography.

University library employees recently discovered the last remaining copies of the book while moving the contents of a warehouse in preparation for the construction of the new Library, Humanities and Fine Arts Center on campus.

The remaining books will be sold under the terms of the 1927 grant, which stated that all profits derived from the sale of the books would go to the library fund at the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines, predecessor to the University of Alaska.

Individual copies are now available at $15 each from the University of Alaska Library.
