

Senator Ted Stevens      Midnight Sun Council Scout Leaders Airs Questionnaire      To Take Part in Seattle Meeting

Alaska's senior Senator Ted Stevens announced that he has sent a questionnaire to Alaskans presently on his mailing list. "The questionnaire should reach Alaska in a few days," Senator Stevens said and further commented by saying, "I feel it essential that I know the Alaskan viewpoint on problems facing the nation and Alaska while representing Alaska in the Senate."

Senator Stevens said the questionnaire is straight-forward and seeks opinions concerning Alaskan and national issues. The Trans-Alaska Pipeline System, the preservation of the arctic wilderness, Vietnam, inflation, crime, and the Alaska Native Land Claims settlement are a few of the topics Senator Stevens has outlined in his questionnaire.

After a reasonable time has elapsed to allow for the completed questionnaires to return to his Washington office, Senator Stevens said the tabulated results will be released to the Alaska news media and published in his newsletter.

All Alaskans are encouraged to take an active part in the questionnaire to provide an accurate reading of Alaskan attitudes concerning the questions asked.

Senator Stevens said that people not receiving his newsletter, but wishing to participate in the questionnaire, should obtain a copy from one of his four Alaska offices.

They are located in the Federal Buildings in Anchorage, Fairbanks, Ketchikan and Juneau, or write his Washington office located in the Senate Office Building, Room 304, Washington, D.C. 20510.

Three leaders of the Midnight Sun Council, Boy Scouts of America, will take part in the 50th Region Eleven Annual Meeting in Seattle, Washington, at the Olympic Hotel, on October 17-18, 1969.

Attending are Dr. Paul Haggland, Dr. Robert L. Smith, and Mr. Ernst Mueller, all of Fairbanks. The delegation will take part in sessions related to council management and the work of council committees.

They will also participate in the Region Eleven Annual Business Meeting, attend the Golden Anniversary Recognition Banquet at which the featured speaker will be Mr. Robert Driscoll, New York City, president, Lord, Abbott & Company, an investment and financial management firm. Mr. Driscoll, a veteran, Scouting leader is currently chairman of his council's BOYPOWER '76 Long Range Development Committee.

The Regional Annual Meeting will also focus attention on the Exploring program. Mr. John Claerhout, New Brunswick, New Jersey, National Director of Exploring, will present detailed support information for new post organizations and post programs. Contemporary Exploring has undergone many new innovations aimed at attracting high-school-age youths. BOYPOWER '76 is the title of a new, dynamic, long-range expansion plan launched in 1969 and will continue until 1976, the 200th anniversary of the founding of our country. Panels will be conducted for all aspects of the program.
