

BOOKS FOR FRIENDSHIP

The 1968 edition of BOOKS FOR FRIENDSHIP is slated for late spring publication. This is the fourth edition of a bibliography of children's books recommended because they foster good human relations.

It has been prepared cooperatively by the American Friends Service Committee and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

The new publication includes a graded, annotated list of over 300 recent books for children between the ages of six and 13. Lucy Hawkinson designed and illustrated the booklet.

Following an introduction by Claire Huchet Bishop, the books are arranged in five categories: "Neighbors at Home," "Neighbors Abroad," "Races and Nations," "Beliefs in Action," and "Holidays and Holy Days."

Copies priced at $1.25 apiece may be ordered from CHILDREN'S PROGRAM, American Friends Service Committee, 160 North 15th Street, Philadelphia, PA. 19102.

(Quality rates furnished on request.)

Happiness is not a destination,
it's a way of travel.
