REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The City of Wainwright is requesting proposals from accounting firms interested in helping the City prepare for, and in conducting, a single audit to meet both State and Federal standards. The City has an annual operating budget of ca. $400,000 and is receiving monies from 10 grants totalling ca. $1.2 million ($272,000 for services, the balance for CIP).

Services should include: a pre-audit site visit to examine our current bookkeeping system and to inform our staff what needs to be done in preparation for the audit itself; audit services to include: a) an entrance conference with key staff, b) the audit test, c) an exit conference to cover questioned costs, etc., d) a grace period to redress, e) a findings and determination letter, f) 30 days to correct before the final report.

Time schedule: Aug/Sept. - pre-audit site visit; Oct/Nov - audit & correction period; Dec. 31st - Federal deadline for completed report.

Cost estimates should be broken down by visit. Time, travel costs & any other support costs should be broken out separately. Billings to be made in same format. Estimated costs should be indicated in "not to exceed" amounts. Background information should include the firm's experience with municipal governments, the specific qualifications of the person or persons who will be doing the work. The auditing should be done by a CPA. References in similar work.

3 copies of the proposal should be sent to Lucille Bodfish, City Clerk, City of Wainwright, Box 9, Wainwright, AK. 99782. Questions should be addressed to the City Clerk above, or Jacob Kagak, Mayor, 763-2815. All proposals should be received by the City Office by July 2, 1986.
