

nobody works harder...

...than Bill Sheffield.

- * on subsistence — Staunch defender of customary and traditional use.
- * on village concerns — Brought community input to capital budget, urged federal action on pending IRAs, focused attention on local hire, talks and listens to village people.
- * on 1991 — Testified to the federal government in support of amendments to protect Native lands and corporations; supports the right of Alaska Natives to determine the future of ANCSA.
- * on social issues — Stepped up efforts to combat and prevent domestic violence, child abuse and alcohol abuse; increased rural and Native representation in policy positions, boards and commissions; beefed up social services despite declining revenues.

A governor working for rural Alaska.
