

Standard Alaska Scholarship recipients announced

ANCHORAGE — Standard Alaska Production Company announced that Kenneth R. Lewis, Jr. of Wrangell High School is the winner of a four-year, $16,000 Standard Alaska-Commissioner's Scholarship. Alaska's Commissioner of Education, Marshall Lind, selected Lewis from among the 25 winners in the Standard Alaska-Principals' Scholarship program.

The $16,000 Standard Alaska-Commissioner's Scholarship was awarded in addition to the $4,000 Lewis won in the Standard Alaska-Principals' Scholarship program.

This is the second year of the new scholarship program in which 25 graduating seniors from 25 Alaska schools are chosen by their respective principals to each be awarded $4,000 over four years.

Standard Alaska President, George N. Nelson said, "Our scholarship program is responsive to the needs of the students who are able to use the funds at any accredited, post-secondary institution for the vocational or degree program of their choice.

"There are opportunities in Alaska for people with all sorts of skills," Nelson continued.

The 25 students who were awarded scholarships are the following, listed with their schools and selecting principals.

The Standard Alaska Scholarship Program was developed in cooperation with the commissioner of education and the Alaska Association of Secondary School Principals (AASSP). The AASSP, through its board of directors, is also instrumental in the administration of the program. The board of AASSP represents all of Alaska's school districts.

In making their scholarship award decisions, principals, the AASSP board and the commissioner of education used the following, non-weighted criteria; academic achievement, leadership potential, community/school involvement and financial need.

Standard Alaska's scholarship program provides for the 20 high schools with enrollments of 225 or more students to alternate annually in awarding ten of the 25 scholarships. These schools represent about two-thirds of Alaska's student population. The remaining 15 scholarships are awarded to students from Alaska's other 226 schools with graduating high school seniors.

Nelson added, "We will now have 50 students going to school on Standard Alaska scholarships. They will be pursuing degrees in such subjects as mathematics, education, computer science and medicine. We are proud to be helping."

STUDENT	SCHOOL	PRINCIPAL
Adena Marcy Albert	Walter Northway Sch.	J. Neal Large
Marilyn Alstrom	Alakanuk Schools	James H. Riedlinger
Norman G. Bouchard	Susitna Valley High	Jean A. Kalish
Peggy Anne Brandt	Sitka High	LeRoy C. Demmert
Julia C. Brunner	Homer High	Lee Winn
Gretchen E. Charles	Barrow High	Roger L. Harms
Jennifer Eubank	Sand Point City Sch.	Liz Boario
Elsie Rose Francis	St. Mary's Catholic H.	Sister Ann J. Pratt
Minnie Dora Guy	Kwethluk High	Kenneth R. Groves
Charles Scott Higgins	Ben Eilson Sr. High	Elizabeth M. Motley
Katherine M. Hocker	Juneau-Douglas High	Chris Bogden
Phillip Kairaiuak	Chaputnguak High	Glen T. Retherford
Jack Kanulie, Jr.	Togiak School	Dorian Rose
Penny Lee	Palmer High	Charles A. Akers
Kenneth R. Lewis	Wrangell High	William L. Nankivel
Dominic Mathis	Monroe Catholic High	Nancy Cook
Paul Mercurief, II	E.L. "Bob" Bartlett H.	Clifford Koivisto
Daryl Mossis	Kenai Central High	Paul Epperson
Jeanette N. Murphy	Bethel Regional High	Lon Winters
Maria Papp	West Valley High	Larry Martin
Jeffrey Allen Patrick	Petersburg High	Leigh S. Wright
Rhoda K. Roberts	Chugiak High	William E. Kuhlmann
Paula Rodda	Bartlett High	Robert L. Kelly
Chad Sharp	Service High	Robert A. Hahn
Hellen M. Wassman	Nome-Beltz High	Robert G. Bellmore