

DISTINGUISHED ARCTIC SCHOLAR — Dr. Jean Malaurie, professor and director of the Arctic Institute of the University of Paris, visited Alaska recently. The author of many works on circumpolar peoples and subjects was here as a consultant to Inupiat University of the Arctic where he is helping design a humanities program with an emphasis on Inupiat history and culture.