Notice is hereby given that the Native Village of Tanana has announced an Enrollment opening giving those who feel that they are eligible an opportunity to apply for membership. "ELIGIBILITY" is all persons whose names are on the list of Native Residents in the Indian Reorganization Act of 1936; all children of Tribal Members and any other native person who sets up a home in the Village. The DEADLINE for applying during this opening period is December 29, 1989. Applications or questions may be obtained by contacting the TNC, P.O. Box 77093; Tanana, Alaska 99777; (907) 366-7160 Attn: Marie Grant, Enrollment Clerk.

I think living in a small village is great for a lot of people because a person has less of a chance of getting lonely...simply because of the continual interaction between friends, family and neighbors.

Working in a village job can be as productive, busy, and satisfying as a city job because there are usually only one or two people in each organization conducting business for the entire village.
