

Ojibway Indian Shows Keen Sense of Humor

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's INDIAN MAGAZINE carried the following recently:

Duke Redbird, 28, an Ojibway from the Saugeen reserve, known primarily as artist and poet, appeared in a new role to deliver part of a humorous sketch within the new show spot on Indian Magazine.

"Columbus thought he landed in India, and so we're called Indians. Had he been sailing for Siam, we might have been called Siamese. If he'd been sailing for China, we'd probably be called Communists!

"In the old days, we had a Chief and a Medicine Man; now we have a Boss and a Psychiatrist!"

Kivalina Kids: Sing, Northern Lights Take Heads and Play Ball

CLASS DIARY
(Primary Grades)

February 9, 1968

Some of the Guard went to Anchorage yesterday. Some others will go today. Bobby, Joseph, Oran, Raymond, Tommy and Willard will go.

February 12, 1968

They poked the dogs yesterday so they won't get rabies. Some of the dogs hollered.

February 14, 1968

It's just like spring outside. We see the blue sky. We see the sun shining on the ocean ice.

Happy Valentine's Day.

February 16, 1968

Amos' daddy got a polar bear. It's got big teeth and a big head.

February 20, 1968

The Northern Lights came

real close to us last night. They were very long. We saw them move across the sky. If we sing, they will come down, cut our heads off, and play ball with them. We were plenty afraid.

February 23, 1968

Yesterday we saw some slides and a movie. They were about animals and fire. We should watch out for fire.
