

Kivalina Kids: Sing, Northern Lights Take Heads and Play Ball

CLASS DIARY
(Primary Grades)

February 9, 1968

Some of the Guard went to Anchorage yesterday. Some others will go today. Bobby, Joseph, Oran, Raymond, Tommy and Willard will go.

February 12, 1968

They poked the dogs yesterday so they won't get rabies. Some of the dogs hollered.

It's just like spring outside. We see the blue sky. We see the sun shining on the ocean ice.

Happy Valentine's Day.

February 16, 1968

Amos' daddy got a polar bear. It's got big teeth and a big head.

The Northern Lights came real close to us last night. They were very long. We saw them move across the sky. If we sing, they will come down, cut our heads off, and play ball with them. We were plenty afraid.

February 23, 1968

Yesterday we saw some slides and a movie. They were about animals and fire. We should watch out for fire.
