

ASSISTANT EDITOR

This position will become available April 16, 1980 at the Tundra Times newspaper. The assistant editor will assume significant responsibilities for news management. Previous news management experience is required. Significant experience in researching and writing about issues and activities related to Alaska Native and American Indian culture, languages and lifestyle and familiarity with Native culture and Alaska Native villages are required. Frequent travel to Native communities is required. Applications received at the Tundra Times office by April 11, 1980 will be considered. Resume and letters of recommendation should be addressed to: Publisher, Tundra Times, 639 "H" Street, Anchorage, Alaska 99501. No telephone inquiries please. Tundra Times is an equal opportunity employer.

A POWERFUL FORCE

Alaska International Air, Inc. announces the acquisition of Great Northern Airlines. GNA brings with it a complement of 3 ELECTRA aircraft, bringing our total number of cargo aircraft to eight. Great Northern Airlines is a scheduled carrier, operating between Anchorage, Bethel, Unalakleet, Nome, Kotzebue, Fairbanks, and Prudhoe Bay. With AIA's fleet of 5 SUPER HERCULES to back up GNA's fleet of 3 ELECTRAS, we're ready to offer the best, fastest and most reliable air cargo service you'll find in Alaska. Whether you're moving building materials or oversized cargo to remote locations, AIA/GNA is the only way to go!

Alaska International Air, Inc.
3201 C Street, Suite 600
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

Great Northern Airlines
3400 International Road
Anchorage, Alaska 99502

Great Northern Airlines is a subsidiary of Alaska International Air, Inc.

KONCOR

FOREST RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Forest Management
Consulting Services

P.O. Box 2212
Kodiak, Alaska
99615

Phone
(907) 486 - 3985

