MarkAir salutes Les Nerland.

"We came up to Fairbanks thinking we were only going to stay a year, but we've been here ever since."

Alaska is our home.

MARKAIR

40 YEARS OF SERVICE • 1947-1987

The first Fairbanks store opened in the early 1900s.

As a young man, Les Nerland came to Fairbanks to manage the family store for a year. His father, who had started the business in Dawson City at the turn of the century, wanted to take an extended visit to his homeland in Norway. Les has never been one to turn down a challenge and an exciting opportunity. So he left Seattle with his wife, Mildred, to experience a year in the north-country.

And like so many of us, Les discovered he felt right at home in the unique life-style of Alaska. And he went on to become one of Alaska's great business pioneers.

MarkAir salutes Les Nerland as part of our celebration of serving Alaskans for 40 years. And just like Les, we're always proud to call Alaska our home.
