

Vets Need Attendance Cards

Veterans who attended classes during the spring and summer sessions under the GI bill should make sure their Certification of Attendance cards are returned to the Veterans Administration immediately.

The VA explained that unless the cards are returned, veterans cannot be paid the educational money for their last month of training. Neither can they be paid for their first month of training when they return to school this fall.

A veteran attending college should fill out and sign the card he received with his next to final check, and mail it to his regional VA office, VA explained.

A veteran training below college level should fill out and sign the card he receives with his monthly check, and return it each month to his regional VA office. The card also must be signed by a school official.

The veteran who has lost his attendance certification card should request another from his nearest VA office. He should then return the completed card to his regional VA office, the VA advised.

Veterans intending to go to school this fall who do not have a VA Certificate of Eligibility are urged to contact their nearest VA office immediately.
