AAA COMMERCIAL ARBITRATOR TRAINING SEMINAR

April 8 & 9, 1983

Westward Hilton Hotel Anchorage

This seminar is a highly sophisticated and intensive skills-building course intended for anyone who is interested in acquiring beginning to intermediate level arbitration training. The course will cover arbitration procedures and practices with an emphasis on statutory and case law. AAA's advanced arbitrator's manual, along with other course materials, are included.

Training by Neal Blacker and Diane Anderson of the American Arbitration Association.

TUITION: $150.00

SCHOLARSHIPS: The Conflict Resolution Center will provide 25 scholarships to qualifying persons who wish to gain additional arbitration experience by volunteering their services to the Conflict Resolution Center. For application information, contact Margie Ennis or Phyllis Oliver at 272-5922.

SEMINAR INFORMATION: Contact Deborah O'Regan, Alaska Bar Association, 272-7469.

A program co-sponsored by the Alaska Bar Association and the Conflict Resolution Center.

ALASKA REPERTORY THEATRE

PRESENTS

A Theatre Arts Residency Designed for Rural Alaska

PLAYMAKING includes daily workshops for high school students, teaching new ways of creative dramatic expression. Each residency features a community performance entitled TWO FOR THE ROAD with Jane Lind and Dana Hart, the actors/teachers of PLAYMAKING. The student participants will also present their own performance based upon an original piece created in the workshops.

Alaska Repertory Theatre is bringing PLAYMAKING to the following communities in 1983:

QUINHAGAK

March 7 - 16

AKIAK

March 21 - 30

Sponsored by the Lower Kuskokwim School District

For further information contact Alaska Rep's Education Department at 276-2327 or write:
