MARANATHA INN

HOME OF THE ALASKAN HEALTH SPA

Maranatha Inn. The hotel, now over 30 years old, was designed and built by Jean Sullivan, a real Alaskan woman of great determination. Completely renovated, it offers the modern traveler fine economical accommodations and such features as: indoor heated swimming pool with Jacuzzi, hot tub with Jacuzzi, dry sauna, wet steam room, exercise rooms, laundry, indoor 19-hole miniature golf course, solarium tanning center, Maranatha Salon for men and women, 100 car parking, breakfast, lunch & dinner served daily, cook your own steak, free ice in the restaurant health bar with 67 different drinks (non-alcoholic), 24 hour gift shop. Every room has frontier color cable 24 hours a day, plus AM & FM radios, in-room telephone and tub/shower combinations. We could go on, but staying at the Maranatha Inn is the best way to enjoy your stay in Fairbanks. Fine food and accommodations, no alcohol and full services at a rate you can afford.
