

Appointments to Boards of Fish, Game announced

JUNEAU — Governor Bill Sheffield today announced the appointment of Jay Massey of Girdwood to the Alaska Board of Game. He also reappointed Brenda Johnson of Nome and Sara Scanlon of Anchorage to the board.

An outdoor writer, guide and outfitter, Massey was appointed to a three-year term on the board, replacing Kirk Gay of Anchorage, also a guide.

"Jay's long experience with the Department of Fish and Game and his extensive knowledge of hunting in Alaska should prove invaluable to the Board of Game," the governor said.

Meanwhile, Sheffield also announced the reappointment of Bix Bonney of Anchorage, Val Anagason of Dillingham and Jesse Foster of Quinhagak to the Alaska Board of Fisheries.

"With the many issues facing the Board of Fisheries now, including the subsistence issue, I felt it was necessary to keep the board intact," Sheffield said. "This will give us the continuity we need."
