

The Faces of Rony

February 14-23, 1986
Greater Anchorage, Inc.
737 W. 5th Avenue

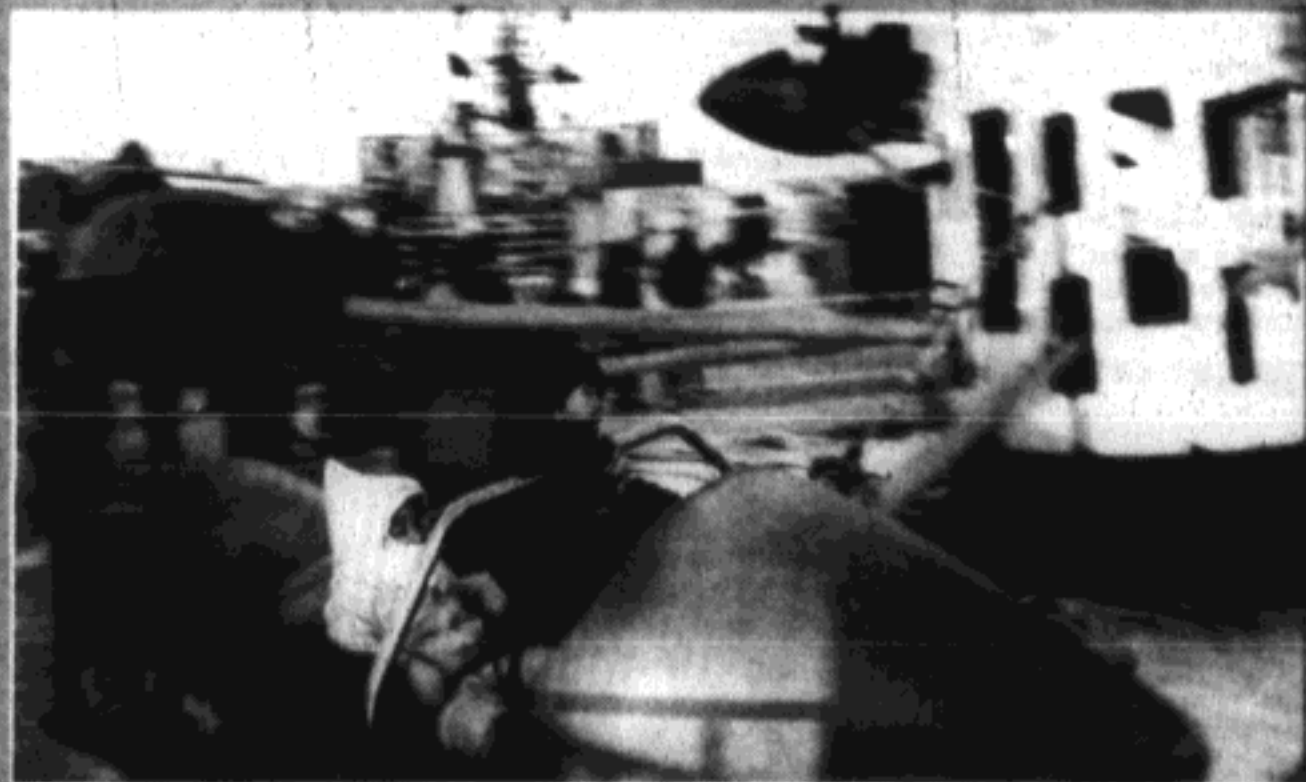

Take Home a piece of Alaska's Heritage from the Native Crafts Show, University Center, February 15-16 and 22-23.

Skins, Beads, & Grass at Work!

Cook Inlet Native Association will be sponsoring, in conjunction with Rony, an Alaska Native Crafts Show at the University Mall on the weekends of Feb. 15-16 and 22-23. Alaska Native Craftspeople will demonstrate their skills and display and have for sale their crafts. We are expecting about 40 of the finest Alaska Native craftspeople from all over Alaska to participate!

Join antique car buffs at the Antique Car and Clothing Display at Alaska Sales and Services, February 22-23.

Don't forget the great bargain of Kid's Day, February 18, 19, & 20.

There's something for all ages at the Trade Fair.

Join Fur Rony in congratulating Mayor Sullivan on his promotion to Lord Trapper.

Lord Trapper Reigns!

The most prestigious honor bestowed upon any individual during Fur Rendezvous is the title of Lord Trapper. This year, Rony is extremely proud to announce George M. Sullivan as the Lord Trapper for 1986.

George's leadership, courage and dedication to his community and family exemplify the standards by which Lord Trapper lives and reigns. His fifteen years as Mayor of Anchorage and his civic participation are proof that George, with his deep, abiding affection for Anchorage (and all of Alaska), has the attributes essential for our reigning monarch.

George Sullivan is Lord Trapper!

Kids Day at Rony Carnival

This year, Seven-Up, Safeway and Golden Wheel Amusements will be offering the people of Alaska the chance to save a bundle on entertainment for the entire family at the Rony Carnival. On February 18, 19, & 20, customers will be able to purchase a pass that allows unlimited use on any and all of the rides from 2:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. for only $10.00. However, if they stop by any Safeway store, they will be able to get a discount coupon that will give them an additional $3.00 off the regular $10.00 price. This discount will allow consumers to ride the Rony Carnival rides for 7 hours, for only $7.00, from Seven-Up and Safeway. (No Purchase Necessary)

Masters Swimming & Diving Championship

The 1986 Alaska Masters Swimming and Diving Championship is here. This sanctioned United States Masters Swim Meet will be held at the UAA pool, 7 A.M.-1 P.M., on February 22nd. Events are planned for even the most novice lap swimmer to join the fun. Awards will include Oldest Senior Citizen, Military Standout, Best Female Over 40, Pentathlon, Relays and Most Congenial Swimmer, plus many more.

Each person will only compete against others in their age group, and the Masters Competition is in five year increments, starting with 20 year olds.

Whether you're a tough competitor looking toward the U.S. Masters Nationals, a recreational lap swimmer, a triathlete with Winter workout blues or a citizen using the pool workouts for better health—there is an event for you!

If you're a swimmer or diver and would like to be an official or a judge, this is your chance.

For more information, call Ken Hickey 338-4965, or we'll see you at pool side February 22!

Thee Royal Rony Event

The Coronation Ball will again be one of the highlights of the season for many Rony fans. During this mid-festival occasion, the 1986 Queen will be chosen from the 10 finalists; however, keep your eyes open at ALL events until then, as Rony contestants have a jam-packed, whirlwind schedule even before the coronation.

Maria Downey, KTUU News Anchor, and Mel Kalkowski, GAI Past President, will host the evening's ceremonies. They will also have the honor of acknowledging Rony's most esteemed Royalty, Lord Trapper George Sullivan. It will also be your last chance to pay tribute to Lord Trapper 1985, Bill Devine.

The evening is not over when the Queen is crowned. The Anchorage Westward Hilton Ballroom will be filled with the sounds of a live dance band until 12:30 or 1:00 A.M.

Mark Thursday, February 20th, 8:00 P.M., on your calendar and plan to spend an evening with Rony's Royalty.

It's Showtime!

Come one and all to the Rony Melodrama, "Airport 1904." This two-act play, with plenty of audience participation, is sure to please every member of the family.

Toss out your inhibitions while you're tossing popcorn at the villain! See and hear the bad guys and cheer on the hero! If you've never been to the Anchorage Fur Rendezvous Melodrama, don't let another year go by and miss this delightful event.

Multi-talented actors and actresses, with song and humor, make the stage come to life. Accompanying them on the piano is the local, and talented, Gary Wallensen, whose magical fingers give drama and excitement to every performance.

Plenty of refreshments and good cheer await you. Performances are every night of Fur Rony at 1721 E. Northern Lights Blvd. Curtain time is 8:00 P.M. We are sure you will agree that the only words left to say at the end is...Encore!...Encore!

Z-O-O-M!

The Rony Spenard Grand Prix is on! Come catch the action this Saturday and Sunday, February 15 and 16 at the new course on International Airport Road, Jewel Lake and Aviation Roads. The race gets underway at 12 noon on Saturday with international race car driver Dennis Aake providing some exciting competition for our own Alaskan drivers. Admission is just $1 and parking is available at the Department of Transportation Building off International Airport Road. Just follow the signs.

There will be road closures near the Grand Prix Race Track from 6 A.M. to 5 P.M. on both days, February 15-16. International Airport Road will be closed from the airport to Jewel Lake. Spenard Road will be closed to thru traffic from International Airport to Wisconsin Avenue. And Northbound Jewel Lake to International Airport will be closed.

An Alternate Route has been designated from the airport down the Old International Airport Road to Jewel Lake and International Airport Road.

Please allow 15-30 minutes extra if you are traveling to the airport on both race days.

Don't miss this year's Spenard Rony Grand Prix. It will be the best one ever!

Thanks, Hilltop Ski Area!

Without your support and the kind donation of your snow making equipment, this year's "GCI Frozen Illusions", wouldn't be taking shape. It's great to see our community pull together to make Rony one of the greatest of all our nation's festivals! Thanks again, Hilltop!
