

Buckland land goes to NANA

The notice of proposed easements to be reserved in the title document conveying land to NANA Regional Corporation, Incorporated in the vicinity of Buckland and for the village of Buckland under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) are now available. Interested parties may inspect the documents at the Fairbanks District Office on Fort Wainwright or the district field offices in Nome and Kotzebue.

Under section 12 of ANCSA, approximately 127,910 acres will be conveyed to NANA Regional Corporation. Incorporated.