

Weinberg named superintendent

B.A. "Al" Weinberg was recently appointed interim superintendent of the Kashunamiut School District, headquartered in Chevak, according to the district board president, Joe Paniyak.

Weinberg will serve while Superintendent Alex Tatum is on leave during the 1990-91 school year.

Weinberg has extensive experience in rural Alaska education. He served as the Bethel region superintendent under the state-operated schools and as the superintendent of the Lower Kuskokwim School District from 1971 to 1979.
