

Yes You Can!

Eliza Jones's pioneering career, as the first Northern Athabaskan Indian to undertake technical linguistic studies, has set an example for others to emulate. Her enthusiastic participation in workshops across Alaska has been instrumental in producing culturally sensitive and linguistically accurate secondary school curricula throughout the state. Through her efforts, the lives of Koyukon Athabaskan people and all Alaskans will be enriched for generations to come.

Eliza Jones received an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters in 1990.

Doyon Foundation

Higher Education and Vocational Scholarships and Grants

Guidelines for Scholarships and Grants

The Doyon Foundation offers financial support to students pursuing their education beyond high school. This support is through its educational scholarships and grants program.

Eligibility

To obtain a Doyon Foundation award, One of the following criteria must be met:

- enrollee to Doyon, Limited
- direct descendant of an enrollee, defined as their children, natural and adopted;

AND

- enrolled or accepted for admittance to an accredited college, university, or technical school.

Additional requirements for technical training grants:

- High School graduate or have successfully attained a GED certificate (please enclose);

Additional requirements for higher education grants and scholarships:

- Must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. Competitive scholarships have different requirements.

Part time students (6-11 credits) are eligible for Doyon Foundation grants.

Application Deadlines

complete application packages must be POSTMARKED OR DELIVERED by April 30, for the following fall semester, and by November 15, for the following spring semester.

For more information contact:

The Doyon Foundation
201 First Avenue
Fairbanks, Alaska 99701
or call 452-4755
Or
1-800-478-4755
(Alaska Only)

J. B. GOTSTEIN & CO., INC. has provided this advertisement to say "We know you can" to students across the state. Over the next several months we will be highlighting students and offering information about scholarship programs in the interest of promoting scholastic excellence.