

SW Region announces scholarship recipients

The Southwest Region School District is pleased to announce the recipients of the Southwest Region School District's , Superintendent Scholarship for the Fall of 1995.

Nicholi Ishnook, a 1995 graduate of Koliganek High School has been awarded a $2000 scholarship. Ishnook plans to attend Salish Kootenai College in Ronan, Montana to obtain his bachelor's degree in Elementary Education.

Peter Christopher Jr., a 1995 graduate of Chief Ivan Blunka School in New Stuyahok has been awarded a $1500 scholarship. Christopher also plans to attend Salish Kootenai College in Ronan, Montana to earn his bachelor's degree in Computer Science.

The Regional School Board and Superintendent of Southwest Region Schools established the Superintendent's Scholarship Fund in May of 1994. The program establishes a $5000 annual contribution to a fund dedicated to a financial assistance program. Criteria for receiving a Superintendent's scholarship award include personal characteristics such as leadership, community service, academic preparation, career planning, and being free of drug and alcohol use.

Ishnook and Christopher are the first two students selected by Superintendent Evans to receive a scholarship award.

Persons or businesses interested in contributing to the Superintendent's Scholarship fund should contact Patty Billingsley at Southwest Region School District, P.O. Box 90, Dillingham, AK 99576 or call (907) 842-5287.
