

Apprenticeship for Carpentry Training

James Lundgren, chairman of the Carpenters' Apprenticeship Program, announces that the committee will be accepting applications for the apprenticeship program until Oct. 17.

Applicants must be between the ages of 17 and 30 and must apply in person to the Carpenters' Hall, 315 Fifth Ave., Fairbanks, between 8 am. and 5 pm.

Letters of application will be accepted from applicants outside the Fairbanks area.

Such letters should include the applicant's age and availability for the apprenticeship program. Following the receipt of such a letter, the committee will send the applicant an application blank.

The program begins the first of the year and continues until May during which time two sessions are offered in Fairbanks. Following completion of the program, the participants are placed on a paying job for the summer.
