

Seniors! MarkAir offers free flights

As part of an ongoing program which began in 1986, MarkAir will once again offer free transportation to Alaska's graduating seniors, according to MarkAir.

Each high school graduate will receive a travel certificate that may be used roundtrip to any point that MarkAir serves.

Travel certificates distributed through high schools throughout the state will be valid through June 1, 1991.